Statement of Compliance

The Responsible Individual must prepare the statement of compliance.

CIW have published guidance on completing the quality of care review which provides advice on what could be contained within the statement of compliance.

Set out your statement of compliance in respect to the four well-being areas below.

The extent to which people feel their voices are heard, they have choice about their care and support, and opportunities are made available to them.	Service users are asked regularly what their opinions, and choices are regarding every aspect of their care. This is recorded in the care plan when any changes are requested or made.
The extent to which people are happy and supported to maintain their ongoing health, development and overall wellbeing. For children, this will also include intellectual, social and behavioural development.	From discussions with service users and their families, health professionals and associated professionals any changes are made with the consent of the service user (if able to give consent due to medical diagnosis) or the service users advocate or appropriate Power of Atourney.
The extent to which people feel safe and protected from abuse and neglect.	Service users are able to discuss any concerns, problems or ask any questions with the R.I. who will respond to those concerns etc. with the appropriate action.
The extent to which people live in accommodation that best supports their wellbeing and achievement of their personal outcomes.	All service users are encouraged to personalise their rooms to make them "feel homely". Any items that are required to assist the service user to maintain their level of mobility (if appropriate) and any other ADL are provided, plus any professionals e.g physiotherapy, podiatrist etc. are sourced to ensure standard are maintained. Personal interests are encouraged to be continued, and assistance given to source any items they may require to continue with those interests.
